

Level 2: 'Delivering the Award' Workshop

Workshop aim*:

To provide adults in Award roles (whether volunteers or staff) with an understanding and consistent interpretation of their role, and provide an overview of some of the skills, behaviours, and awareness required to effectively deliver the Duke of Edinburgh's International Award (the Award) in line with the experiential learning philosophy of the programme.

Who should attend this workshop:

The course is aimed at adults in the following Award roles:

- Award Coordinators
- Award Leaders
- Adventurous Journey Supervisors
- Adventurous Journey Assessors
- Award Verifiers

Workshop prerequisites:

Delegates are required to complete the following mandatory online courses prior to attending:

- Level 1: Award Induction
- Level 1: Award Delivery
- Level 2: Adventurous Journey Pre-Learning

Please note: To receive a Certificate of Completion it is compulsory to complete all the above courses.

Workshop delivery:

The 'Delivering the Award' Workshop is an instructor led course facilitated by members of the Award's Training Panel. Details on locations, dates and how to book can be found here:

<https://www.intaward.org/event/training-iacs>

*Please note: This course will not provide outdoors skills training for Adventurous Journeys; it focuses solely on the required knowledge, skills and behaviours to effectively deliver the Award as a programme. If you do not possess the skills to train participants for Adventurous Journeys, they can be delivered to participants by an external provider such as activity providers, geography teachers, local scout leaders etc.
