How to talk about the Award

The Duke of Edinburgh's International Award is a global framework for non-formal education and learning, which challenges young people to dream big, celebrate their achievements and make a difference in their world. Through developing transferable skills, increasing their fitness levels, cultivating a sense of adventure and volunteering in their community, the Award helps young people to find their purpose, passion and place in the world. It operates in more than 130 countries and territories, helping to inspire millions of young people to take control and make their own choices.

LOGO FORMAT	BEST USED FOR
JPG/JPEG	Most commonly used format for image files online as it's compressed.
PNG	Your logo will appear directly on top of any background without a rectangle around it as the background is transparent.

CMYK	CMYK format is best used for print.

Where to use the Foundation logo

You may use the Foundation's logo on a web page (if you have a website) with a link back to the Foundation's website: www.intaward.org. The Foundation can advise on how this page should look. Please do not use the Foundation's logo on any materials created by you, the NAO.

How to use your NAO logo

To help grow awareness of the visual identity please also use your Award logo whenever you talk about the Award, whether this is on your website and/or when you are creating marketing and operational materials. This logo is not to be used by your Award Centres.

	Proud to deliver 	NAOs are welcome to also use the cropped bird with your country name underneath, however the Foundation won't be supplying these, so they will need to be created locally.
	Proud to be 	Proud to deliver  Proud to deliver
DO NOT USE THE FOUNDATION LOGO		MAKE SURE SIZING OF LOGO IS IN LINE WITH GUIDANCE IN FULL BRAND GUIDELINES PACK
DO NOT USE ANY OTHER NAOs' LOGOS

As per Clause 6 in the licence the Foundation grants the NAO a/an non-exclusive/exclusive, royalty-free, licence to use the Name, Logo and Materials of the Award for the duration of this Licence.
