BRAND ESSENTIALS

How to talk about the Award

The Duke of Edinburgh’s International Award is a global framework for non-formal education and learning, which challenges young people to dream big, celebrate their achievements and make a difference in their world. Through developing transferable skills, increasing their fitness levels, cultivating a sense of adventure and volunteering in their community, the Award helps young people to find their purpose, passion and place in the world. It operates in more than 130 countries and territories, helping to inspire millions of young people to take control and make their own choices.

LOGO FORMAT | BEST USED FOR
--- | ---
JPG/JPEG | Most commonly used format for image files online as it’s compressed.
PNG | Your logo will appear directly on top of any background without a rectangle around it as the background is transparent.
RGB | This colour model is used for all online purposes.
CMYK | CMYK format is best used for print.

Where to use the Logo

The ‘Proud to Deliver’ logo (available in five languages) must be represented on at least one web page (if your IAC has a website) with a link back to the Foundation’s website: www.intaward.org.

How to use the Logo correctly

To help grow the awareness of the visual identity of the Award brand please use the logos whenever you mention about the Award, whether this is on your website and/or when you are creating marketing material. Inaccurate use or misuse of the logo would be in breach of the IAC licence.

For more details, inspiration and tips on how to use the Award brand, including fonts and pantones, please see our full Brand Guidelines. To help create Award branded materials, please visit the Brand Centre where you will have access to various items automatically populated with your Award logo.
The Duke of Edinburgh’s International Award is a global framework for non-formal education and learning, which challenges young people to discover their purpose, passion and place in the world; to be ready for their world - whatever that may be.
OUR VISION

To reach more young people from diverse backgrounds and equip them as individuals to succeed in life.

#WORLDREADY
OUR VALUES

We believe in...
Empowering
Being progressive
Being diverse
Being connected
OUR GUIDING PRINCIPLES

- Individual
- Non-Competitive
- Achievable
- Voluntary
- Developmental
- Balanced
- Progressive
- Inspirational
- Persistence
- Enjoyable

Our guiding principles are critical elements of our brand and are essential to anyone responsible for delivering the Award.
OUR BRAND

Our brand is made up of:

Our visual identity
Colour palette
Tone of voice
Typographic style
Photography

Together, they help create a consistent style and deliver our vision.
The Award challenges young people to discover their full potential and find their purpose, passion and place in the world.

WHAT WE TALK ABOUT
The importance of non-formal education and learning; being #WORLDREADY

WHAT WE SHOW
Young people gaining transferable and universal skills, discovering their full potential by participating in the Award

HOW WE TALK
Using inspiring language that challenges young people to find their purpose, passion and place in the world

WHAT WE CALL OURSELVES (INFORMALLY)
The Award

WHAT YOU MAY CALL YOURSELVES (INFORMALLY)
Depending on the branding route you have chosen, examples include the Award; DofE; Duke of Ed; IAYP; MEPI
Our Tone of Voice

'To speak from the heart a little more and the head a little less'

The Award is known in many different ways around the world. And while it’s important to talk about the Award in ways which resonate within our own countries, there are also opportunities for us to create consistency in our global messaging.

We want to help the Award family to explain what we do and how we do it, succinctly and emotively.
OUR STORY IN SECONDS

3: Challenging young people to find their purpose, passion and place in the world.

15: The Duke of Edinburgh’s International Award is a global framework for non-formal education and learning, which challenges young people to discover their potential and find their purpose, passion and place in the world.

30: The Duke of Edinburgh’s International Award is a global framework for non-formal education and learning, which challenges young people to dream big, celebrate their achievements and make a difference in their world. Through developing universal and transferable skills, increasing their fitness levels, cultivating a sense of adventure and volunteering in their community, the Award inspires young people to take control, make their own choices and build their own unique programmes, helping them to find their purpose, passion and place in the world.

60: The Duke of Edinburgh’s International Award is a global framework for non-formal education and learning, which challenges young people to dream big, celebrate their achievements and make a difference in their world. Through developing transferable skills, increasing their fitness levels, cultivating a sense of adventure and volunteering in their community, the Award helps young people to find their purpose, passion and place in the world. It operates in more than 130 countries and territories, helping to inspire millions of young people to take control and make their own choices. And it’s not limited by the boundaries of one programme or place. There are more than 1 million young people currently completing their own unique programme, via hundreds of thousands of youth-focused partners and operators, who are in tune with the interests and challenges facing young people today, including schools, youth organisations, examination boards and youth offender institutions.

OUR RIBBON
OUR RIBBON

There is one master artwork for the ribbon device. Please use either full colour, black, white or block colour variations of our ribbon.

Be sure to always use the artwork, never try to recreate the ribbon device.
OUR BAR
OUR BAR

There is one master artwork for the bar device. Please use either the full colour or individual brand colours for horizontal and/or vertical use.
OUR COLOURS
OUR AWARD COLOURS

We use the full colour palette across our materials where possible. However we also attribute the brand colours to the following specific sections of the Award where appropriate.

Please use colour specifications carefully.
Pantone and CMYK are for print applications. RGB and HEX are for digital and online applications.
OUR FONT
The Duke of Edinburgh’s International Award has a clean and simple typographic style, as expressed throughout this guide. This style should be used consistently across all formats and applications.

FF Meta OT Normal and Bold is our corporate font and should be used for all designed applications.

For all MS Office or digital applications use Calibri.

Our photography style should be a natural and unstaged representation of young people and adults participating in the Award.

Images should try to capture what the Award aims to achieve: a sense of adventure, a sense of people, and a sense of character and strength.

Our photographs should also reflect our Award values of being empowering, diverse, connected and progressive.

Images should always be provided for print at 300dpi. When capturing new images, consider the format (landscape or portrait) of the image and its end use.

PLEASE ENSURE YOU HAVE OBTAINED APPROPRIATE CONSENT BEFORE TAKING AND/OR USING ANY IMAGES.
BRAND EXTENSION

#WORLDREADY LOGO

#WORLDREADY is a brand extension of the Award’s overall brand. Its purpose is to help champion and promote the concept of non-formal education and learning. While it must never be used in place of the Award brand, it can be used alongside it, as appropriate.

SOCIAL MEDIA

Social media platforms such as Facebook, Twitter, YouTube and Instagram allow the Award family to engage with stakeholders including existing and potential volunteers, supporters and participants, in an interactive and conversational way.

These channels can be useful to build discussion about the Award and the importance of non-formal education and learning, alongside providing highly visual content of real-time updates on Award activity around the world.

NAOs are welcome to use a tone of voice that speaks to your individual audiences, including the use of emojis and hashtags as appropriate, but as one Award family, we all use language and content that aligns with the Award’s Guiding Principles.
Poster

FIND YOUR PURPOSE, PASSION & PLACE IN THE WORLD

We also have a plain version of the poster that includes an editable web address field and can be used to help raise brand awareness of the Award at events.
If you would like to add contact details onto the Award poster to encourage people to sign-up, then please use the version of the poster displayed here.
