WHO WE ARE

The Duke of Edinburgh’s International Award is a global framework for non-formal education and learning, which challenges young people to discover their purpose, passion and place in the world; to be ready for their world - whatever that may be.
OUR VISION

To reach more young people from diverse backgrounds and equip them as individuals to succeed in life.

#WORLDREADY
OUR VALUES

We believe in...
Empowering
Being progressive
Being diverse
Being connected
OUR GUIDING PRINCIPLES

Individual
Non-Competitive
Achievable
Voluntary Developmental Balanced
Progressive Inspirational
Persistence
Enjoyable

Our guiding principles are critical elements of our brand and are essential to anyone responsible for delivering the Award.
Our brand is made up of:

- Our visual identity
- Colour palette
- Tone of voice
- Typographic style
- Photography

Together, they help create a consistent style and deliver our vision.
OUR BRAND AT A GLANCE

The Award challenges young people to discover their full potential and find their purpose, passion and place in the world.

WHAT WE TALK ABOUT
The importance of non-formal education and learning; being #WORLDREADY

WHAT WE SHOW
Young people gaining transferable and universal skills, discovering their full potential by participating in the Award

HOW WE TALK
Using inspiring language that challenges young people to find their purpose, passion and place in the world

WHAT WE CALL OURSELVES (INFORMALLY)
The Award

WHAT YOU MAY CALL YOURSELVES (INFORMALLY)
Depending on the branding route you have chosen, examples include the Award; DofE; Duke of Ed; IAYP; MEPI
The Award is known in many different ways around the world. And while it’s important to talk about the Award in ways which resonate within our own countries, there are also opportunities for us to create consistency in our global messaging.

We want to help the Award family to explain what we do and how we do it, succinctly and emotively.

'To speak from the heart a little more and the head a little less'
OUR STORY IN SECONDS

Through developing transferable skills, increasing their fitness levels, cultivating a sense of adventure and volunteering in their community, the Award helps young people to find their purpose, passion and place in the world. It operates in more than 130 countries and territories, helping to inspire millions of young people to take control and make their own choices. And it’s not limited by the boundaries of one programme or place. There are more than 1 million young people currently completing their own unique programme, via hundreds of thousands of youth-focused partners and operators, who are in tune with the interests and challenges facing young people today, including schools, youth organisations, examination boards and youth offender institutions.
YOUR VISUAL IDENTITY

There are numerous variations of the Award logo which are used in different circumstances.

On the following pages, you will find use of block colour across both the full and cropped logos.

By creating a range of options, the logo is both flexible and easy to use while maintaining the brand’s core look and feel.

ALUMNI
LOGO OPTIONS
ALUMNI LOGO OPTIONS

The Foundation has created a new logo for use by all local alumni groups (LAGs) who have officially signed up to join the Global Award Alumni Network (GAAN). The new logo is derived from the Foundation’s main brand and it is strictly for use by officially-recognised alumni groups.

Foundation only

This is the logo for use by The Duke of Edinburgh’s International Award Foundation on all digital and print materials and platforms. This logo must not be used by any LAG.
ALUMNI LOGO OPTIONS

This is the logo for use by LAGs who are official members of the GAAN. The use of this logo is granted by the Foundation through the Letter of Agreement to join the GAAN. Where the LAG is established and managed independently from the NAO/OP, the use of the logo is monitored by the National Award Operator (NAO)/Operating Partner (OP) in the country/region in which the LAG operates. In the instance that there is no NAO in a country where the LAG operates, the Foundation may either monitor the use of the logo directly or nominate an Award Operator to monitor.

OUR FONT

The Duke of Edinburgh's International Award has a clean and simple typographic style, as expressed throughout this guide. This style should be used consistently across all formats and applications.

FF Meta OT Normal and Bold is our corporate font and should be used for all designed applications.

For all MS Office or digital applications use Calibri.
OUR FONT IN USE

Our brand typeface, FF META OT, has two weights that can be used for different typographic elements. Follow the guidelines below to add personality to our typography using dynamic use of scale.

Headings

| FF META OT BOLD | Use this for titles and headings – for example, on front covers and at the top of pages. |

Highlighted Headline

| FF META OT BOLD ITALIC | Use this for poster highlighted copy. |

Sub-Headings

| FF META OT BOLD | Use this for sub-headings and to highlight words, short phrases and websites. |

Body Copy

| FF META OT NORMAL | Use this for body text, introductory paragraphs, pull-out quotes and small print. |

OUR PHOTOGRAPHY

Our photography style should be a natural and unstaged representation of young people and adults participating in the Award.

Images should try to capture what the Award aims to achieve: a sense of adventure, a sense of people, and a sense of character and strength.

Our photographs should also reflect our Award values of being empowering, diverse, connected and progressive.

Images should always be provided for print at 300dpi. When capturing new images, consider the format (landscape or portrait) of the image and its end use.

PLEASE ENSURE YOU HAVE OBTAINED APPROPRIATE CONSENT BEFORE TAKING AND/OR USING ANY IMAGES.
BRAND EXTENSION

#WORLDREADY LOGO

#WORLDREADY is a brand extension of the Award’s overall brand. Its purpose is to help champion and promote the concept of non-formal education and learning. While it must never be used in place of the Award brand, it can be used alongside it, as appropriate.

SOCIAL MEDIA

Social media platforms such as Facebook, Twitter, YouTube and Instagram allow the Award family to engage with stakeholders including existing and potential volunteers, supporters and participants, in an interactive and conversational way.

These channels can be useful to build discussion about the Award and the importance of non-formal education and learning, alongside providing highly visual content of real-time updates on Award activity around the world.

NAOs are welcome to use a tone of voice that speaks to your individual audiences, including the use of emojis and hashtags as appropriate, but as one Award family, we all use language and content that aligns with the Award’s Guiding Principles.

FIND YOUR PURPOSE, PASSION & PLACE IN THE WORLD

We also have a plain version of the poster that includes an editable web address field and can be used to help raise brand awareness of the Award at events.
If you would like to add contact details onto the Award poster to encourage people to sign-up, then please use the version of the poster displayed here.
IN THIS EVER-CHANGING ENVIRONMENT, HOW DO YOUNG PEOPLE REALLY PREPARE THEMSELVES FOR THEIR FUTURE?
We have created a selection of #WORLDREADY posters for you. These can be printed at either A4 or A3 size but we think the bigger, the better. These should be printed full colour.
We have created a version for black and white printers, the black and white version should be printed on paper closely matching our brand colours.
